

Faculty of Humanities Researcher Development Bulletin

January 2012

Inside this bulletin you will find information and events of interest to postgraduate researchers and research staff within the Faculty of Humanities. This bulletin and previous issues can also be downloaded from the bulletins page of the Researcher Development website.

For all regular researcher development updates please follow our Twitter page.

News

Despite regular reminders about professional etiquette, people are still booking on courses then neglecting to turn up.

Please see the note below about our new policy regarding workshop places and see the new information on our website about assessing your professional needs.

Useful links

Researcher Development site
PGR Development Calendar
Research Staff Calendar
PGR Resources
methods@manchester
artsmethods@manchester
eProg
Vitae

Postgraduate Training

Please only attend sessions when you have booked a place*. All training sessions are listed on our PGR Development Calendar – please click on the course you want to attend and book through eProg. If you are unable to attend a workshop on which you have booked, you MUST cancel your place through eProg or notify humanities-training@manchester.ac.uk in advance of the session. You can check the status of your bookings, register and cancel workshops through eProg.

**Please note that we currently have a waiting list for the some of our workshops. Those who book on to a workshop but fail to attend are denying others a place. Therefore from January 2012 the Faculty has implemented a new policy - we will be contacting supervisors directly to inform them of those research students who have booked to attend a workshop but fail to turn up and neglect to cancel their place. If you attend a workshop, please ensure to sign the register****

* Before booking onto a course please make sure that you can abide by our code of professional etiquette.

Faculty development sessions Jan – mid Feb with places still available to book (at the time of writing this bulletin):

Managing Long Documents in Word - supported workshop 18/01/2012

Re-activating Your Writing Skills 07/02/2012

Planning your Research 07/0/2012

Finding Information for your Research 07/02/2012

Word Level 2 - supported workshops 08/02/2012

Presentation Skills for Beginners 08/02/2012

The Resilient Researcher 09/02/2012

Academic Writing 1 14/02/2012

Writing Your Literature Review 14/02/2012

GTA dates have been added for next semester – book here

For more information or to book on a course please go to the PGR Development Calendar.

Faculty of Humanities
Researcher Development Bulletin*January 2012*Research Staff

Information about research staff events is sent out in an e-mail bulletin. If you would like to be added to the list of recipients please contact claire.stocks@manchester.ac.uk. Alternatively you can visit the Research Staff blog.

University-Wide Training*methods@manchester - What is...?

A regular series of lunch-time talks which provide short, accessible introductory guides to key research methods. These talks are ideal for research students - or their supervisors - who want to find out what the method does and whether it might be useful in their research. They will also be of interest to any member of staff who is curious to find out about a new method. You might also like to have a look at the methods videos for summaries of talks on Social Sciences Research methods.

artsmethods@manchester

artsmethods@manchester is a programme of talks, workshops and events running throughout the year that explore approaches to arts research and the breadth of methodological expertise in arts and languages at the University of Manchester. artsmethods also works closely with cultural partners across Manchester and the North West to enhance the impact and dissemination of arts and languages research. The website contains useful resources both at the University of Manchester and nationwide. Workshops are available to book through eProg.

Training Courses for Research Computing

IT Services for Research offers a range of courses to postgraduates and staff that will improve skills in all aspects of research computing including programming, high end computing and visualization.

John Rylands University Library

The Library offers a range of information skills sessions throughout the year to help you with your research. Courses cover literature searching, citation analysis, reference management, keeping up-to-date and a range of workshops on specialist resources and research information issues.

Don't forget to check out Vitae events in the North-West.

Dates for your Diary*Communicating your research: younger audiences, outreach and public engagement" January 26th 2012, 1- 4pm.

This workshop will explore and share experiences of communicating Arts and Humanities research to different audiences, including outreach and community projects, and to younger participants. With tips on how to communicate complex ideas and research, as well as practical ways of making research topics more engaging, the workshop includes speakers from an arts and humanities background at a variety of university career-stages (from professorial to current PhD researchers). All are welcome, whether you are new to communicating your research or have experiences to share. The workshop is free of charge; however booking is essential as places are limited. To reserve a place, please email Karina.croucher@manchester.ac.uk with your name and contact details, subject area, level of study and any needs and requirements.

Faculty of Humanities
Researcher Development Bulletin*January 2012*Faculty Seminars

To keep updated about what's going on in the Faculty check out the Humnet Seminars and Events web page. You can also use the online form to submit details of discipline specific seminars which you are organising.

Other Information

There is a new section of our website titled "Assessing your development needs". In this section you can find out more about how to assess your training and development as a researcher including how to make key decisions about what training and development activities to take part in during your time at Manchester. Please also make time to explore the Researcher Development Framework (RDF) Interactive Tool and the new Vitae RDF Resources page.