

DARFUR ASSESSING THE ASSESSMENTS

A seminar run by The Humanitarian & Conflict Response Institute
27 & 28 May 2010, Samuel Alexander Building, LG12

DAY 1

9am	Seminar to be opened by Profesor Alistair Ulph, Dean, Faculty of Humanities Welcome & introductions Professor Steve Reyna
9.15am	The Darfur Conflict: Assessing Assessments Professor Steve Reyna
10.00	Coffee
10.15am	Assessing the politics of Darfur Panel chaired by Professor Steve Reyna Darfur crises: three parallel conflicts, not one Professor Adam Azzain Mohamed Conflict management and foreign intervention in Darfur Mutasim Bashir Ali Hadi Transient conjunctures: crisis economies in the Darfur-Chad border zone Dr Andrea Behrends
12.45pm	Lunch
2pm	Assessing the interventions Panel chaired by Dr Rony Brauman Dr Hany El-Banna, Founder & President, The Humanitarian Forum Coralie Giese, Humanitarian Aid Worker & PhD student The Sudan government and the Darfur crisis Professor Munzoul Assal
4pm–5pm	Masterclass Professor Adam Azzain Mohamed A personal experience supervising student theses in the Sudan: The case of social science students in the University of Khartoum.

DAY 2

10am	Roundtable discussion with Q&A Panel chaired by Professor Bertrand Taithe Panel to comprise all speakers from day one
12 noon	Close of seminar

To reserve your place at this seminar please email
rebecca.whitehead@manchester.ac.uk or call 0161 275 8967

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester