

'Access for All': Incorporating Disability into Emergency Humanitarian Assistance

Friday 11th November

2pm, Alan Turing Building
Room G.209

Image Copyright: Veronique de Viguerie/Handicap International

Led by Antony Duttine, Rehabilitation and Advocacy Officer for Handicap International.

A seminar exploring disability and rehabilitation during war and humanitarian crises, with a particular focus on Afghanistan and Sub-Saharan Africa.

Places are limited and will be offered on a first come, first served basis. To book please contact: Jessica.field-2@postgrad.manchester.ac.uk

www.hcri.ac.uk

“ ‘Access for All’: Incorporating Disability into Emergency Humanitarian Assistance” Friday 11th November
Venue	Alan Turing Building, room G.209 (see below for directions)
2.00pm	Introduction – Dr. Rubina Jasani Jessica Field, HCRI PhD Student
2.10pm	Presentation: “ ‘Access for All’: Incorporating Disability into Emergency Humanitarian Assistance”  Antony Duttine, Rehabilitation and Advocacy Officer for Handicap International
3.00pm	Q&amp;A Chair – Jessica Field, HCRI PhD student
3.45pm	Closing Comments – Dr. Rubina Jasani

Alan Turing Building

Number 46 on the campus map:

For the full map see: <http://www.manchester.ac.uk/medialibrary/maps/campusmap.pdf>