

Appearance, Ageing and the Life Course Conference

April 26th 2013

University of Manchester

Chair: Rachel Cohen , City University
9.30 – 10.00	Arrivals, coffee and registration
10.00 – 10.05	Welcome from MICRA
10.05 – 10.15	Introduction to the day, Richard Ward , University of Stirling
10.15 – 10.45	Looking at ageing: life course lessons from a participatory visual project, Lorna Warren , University of Sheffield
10.45 – 11.15	Dementia, ageing and inscribing glamour on the black female body, Shirley Tate , University of Leeds
11.15 – 11.45	'My generation': a hair historical perspective on stylistic strategies in old age, Geraldine Biddle-Perry , Central St Martin's College of Art and Design
11.45 – 12.00	Comfort break
12.00 – 12.40	The feeling of appearance and the appearance of feeling: exploring hair practices and cultures of the body in dementia care, Richard Ward , University of Stirling
12.40 – 1.10	Appearance isn't only skin deep: embodiment, masculinity and everyday grooming practices in dementia care, Sarah Campbell , University of Manchester
1.10 – 2.00	LUNCH
2.00 – 2.30	If I could turn back time? Footwear, identity and the lifecourse, Jenny Hockey (presenter), Victoria Robinson , Rachel Dilley and Alex Sherlock , University of Sheffield
2.30 – 3.00	Clothing and the Embodiment of Age Identities, Julia Twigg , University of Kent
3.00 – 3.30	'I wore khaki for seven years': Clothing and the life-narratives of people with dementia, Christina Buse , University of Kent
3.30 – 4.00	Turning into my Mother: ageing and the ambivalent experience of family resemblance, Jennifer Mason , University of Manchester
4.00 – 4.30	Final questions and closing comments from the Chair, Rachel Cohen , City University

