

MICRA PhD Conference Programme 14 May 2015 in association with Age UK and The Social and Behavioural Science section of the International Association of Geriatrics and Gerontology-European Region

Current and Future Trends in European Research on Ageing

14th May 2015:

Nowgen Centre, 29 Grafton Street, Manchester, M13 9WU

09.15	Registration
09.45-10.30	Opening welcome and introduction to conference/ MICRA Social Ageing in Europe – emerging issues	Chris Phillipson Professor of Sociology and Social Gerontology, The University of Manchester
10.30	New approaches to understanding frailty in later life	Dr.Neil Pendleton, Senior Lecturer in Geriatric Medicine, The University of Manchester
11.15	Coffee Break and networking
11.45	Panel on Career Development Mike Sherratt (Centre for Tissue Injury & Repair) Martin Hyde (Sociology, Manchester) Dave Lee (Epidemiology, Manchester)
12.45-2.15	Lunch Presentation of posters
2.15-3.30	Healthy Ageing in Europe – emerging issues.	Carol Jagger AXA Professor of the Epidemiology of Aging, University of Newcastle
3.30	Panel on the Future of European Research on Ageing Prof. Dorly Deeg Prof. Carol Jagger Prof. Chris Phillipson Prof. Dominique Verté
16.00	Close

Attendance at the PhD Conference is free.

Book online at <http://www.micra.manchester.ac.uk/events/micra-phd-conference-2015/>