

Global Urbanism Lectures

Wed, 14 March 2012

GURC and cities@manchester are hosting two leading urban scholars on Wednesday 14th March. As these events will be of interest to a shared audience they have been organised as twinned lectures with a combined drinks reception. All welcome, no registration required.

Samuel Alexander Arts Lecture Theatre (no. 67 on the campus map)

3pm: GURC Annual Lecture

Professor Susan Parnell (University of Cape Town)

'(re)theorising cities from the global south'

Introduced by Professor Caroline Moser (Director, GURC)

4.30pm: Tea and Coffee Break

5pm: cities@manchester Inaugural Lecture

Professor Ash Amin (University of Cambridge)

'Telescopic urbanism: on slums'

Introduced by Professor Nina Glick Schiller (Director, RICC)

6:15pm: Drinks reception

Associated Event

'Prof Ash Amin in conversation'

1-2.15pm, Mansfield Cooper G.21.

Prof Kevin Ward will lead an informal Q&A session with Prof. Amin about his work, career and publications. This event will be of particular interest to students.

More information

Full details including speaker biographies at www.cities.manchester.ac.uk/events/global_urbanism