

SEMINAR SERIES

THURSDAYS

Humanities Bridgeford Street, Room 1.69/1.70

10 October
4.30pm

Iain Deas, Planning and Environmental Management, University
of Manchester

The search for sub-national territorial governance solutions: 25 years of cityregionalism in Manchester

31 October
4.00pm

Professor Frank Geels,
Manchester Business School, University of Manchester

The arduous transition to low-carbon energy:
A multi-level analysis of renewable electricity niches and resilient regimes

7 November
4.00pm

Professor Matthew Carmona, Barlett School of Planning, UCL

Capital Spaces: The complex evolving spaces of a global city, London

14 November
4.30pm

Dr. Richard Cowell,
Planning and Geography,
Cardiff University

On the edge: representations and realities of suburbia

28 November
4.00pm

Nuno Pinto, Planning and Environmental Management, University
of Manchester

Modelling land-use change using cellular automata