

Quatuor Danel Open House Weekend
Friday – Sunday, 9 – 11 December 2016

Application form

The University of Manchester and its internationally-renowned resident string quartet, Quatuor Danel, invite you to join in another fantastic music-making opportunity.

Everyone is welcome to participate in the event, which will feature coaching by individual members of the Quatuor Danel and Professor David Fanning, who will also take part in end-of-day discussions/workshops.

Taking place 9-11 December 2016, the event is offered to amateurs, professionals and students, and participants should all be in established ensembles, from duos upwards. We will endeavour to offer each group attending for two days or more a minimum of three coaching sessions with our resident experts.

The Martin Harris Centre for Music and Drama is pleased to offer attendees free tickets for the Friday evening concert, part of the Quatuor Danel's prestigious 2016-17 season, featuring quartets by Weinberg and Beethoven.

Please note that places are limited. In the event of over-subscription, preference may be given to Quatuor Danel season-ticket holders and to staff and students of the University of Manchester from subject-areas other than Music.

'They are the best coaches we have ever had by a long way.'

'It was a great experience as always, thanks for organising.'

'Since we had long coaching sessions I was afraid the "boys" would run out of things to tell us, or that I would tire, in the event they had lots to say, all constructive, and I didn't tire, (which was very satisfactory).'
