

Teaching in Higher Education: Practice and Politics

Organised by Centre for Higher Education Research, Innovation and Learning (CHERIL)

Monday 7th December 2015

Venue: Manchester Conference Centre at the Pendulum Hotel

Programme details:

- 9:00 Registration & Coffee - An opportunity to view posters from 2014/15 CHERIL award-holders
- 9:30 Welcome by Professor Clive Agnew and Professor Stephanie Marshall
- 9:50 – 10:50 The TEF: a working example of politics in action - Nick Hillman - Director of Higher Education Policy Institute (HEPI)
- 10:50 – 11:05 Coffee
- 11:05 – 11:50 Parallel Sessions - A choice of talks by 2014/15 CHERIL award-holders about their project findings
What did you do this summer? An investigation into the gains from paid internships – Jackie Carter & Mark Brown – Pioneer Room
Developing excellence in classroom interaction: Video-based TA training and possibilities of the 'digital seminar' – Matthew Farr – Seminar Room 1
Learning about learning: 1st year pharmacy students' learning styles, engagement and academic performance – Sarah Willis & Harsha Parmar – Seminar Room 7
Playing the Field: Evaluating Practice - Chris Perkins & Jana Wendler – Seminar Room 5
- 12:00 – 12:45 Parallel Sessions - A choice of talks by 2014/15 CHERIL award-holders about their project findings
Publishing as pedagogy: the Student Open Access Research (SOAR) project – Simon Bains – Seminar Room 5
Transition into University – The Fashion S.O.C. – Rachel Studd & Gianpaolo Vignali – Seminar Room 1
Lecturing in the Time of MOOCs – Ralf Becker – Pioneer Room

The experiences of live-at-home students: An emerging students-as-producers project with Medicine and Nursing students – Shaun Speed & Dianne Burns – Seminar Room 7
- 12:45 – 13:45 Buffet Lunch - An opportunity to network and view posters from 2014/15 CHERIL award-holders
- 13:45 – 14:45 Moving from outside in to inside out: a new take on teaching excellence - Professor Andrew Westwood - Associate Vice- President for Public Affairs
- 15:00 – 15:30 Integrating Research, Education and Social Responsibility - Professor Nancy Rothwell
Plus Q & A session
- 15:30 Tea & Coffee – An opportunity to network, view Conference posters and find out more information about CHERIL