

School of Environment and Development
Geography Seminar Series 2005-2006

Semester 2
Mondays at 1.00pm and
Wednesdays at 4.00pm
Room 2.04, Mansfield Cooper Building

Date	Speaker	Title
Monday 6 February 2006	David Featherstone Geography Department Liverpool University	Networking the Political
Wednesday 15 February 2006	Philip Owens National Soil Resources Institute Cranfield University	Wildfire Impacts on Sediment Production, Delivery and Storage in Boreal Forest Catchments: Implications for Riverine Habitat Quality
Monday 20 February 2006	Kim England Department of Geography University of Washington Seattle, USA	Spaces of Caring Labour (tbc)
Wednesday 22 February 2006	Martin Dodge Geography Discipline School of Environment and Development University of Manchester	Exposing the Secret City: Urban Exploration as 'Space Hacking'
Wednesday 1 March 2006	Hayden Lorimer Department of Geography University of Glasgow	Hinterland - Four Ways to Tell a Family
Wednesday 8 March 2006	Mark Pluciennik School of Archaeology and Ancient History University of Leicester	Exploring Landscapes in Central Sicily
Monday 13 March 2006 at 4.00pm	Ian Foster Geography and Environmental Science Coventry University	Muddy Waters: Fine Sediment Dynamics in Fluvial Systems

Monday 20 March 2006	Gill Valentine and Mark Jayne Leeds University and Geography Discipline School of Environment and Development University of Manchester	Geographies of Alcohol, Drinking and Drunkenness
Wednesday 22 March 2006	Martin Hess Geography Discipline School of Environment and Development University of Manchester	Regional Development and its Discontents
Monday 27 March 2006	Christine Milligan Institute for Health Research Lancaster University	From Home to 'Home': Situating Emotions within the Care-Giving Experience
Wednesday 29 March 2006 POSTPONED TO 2006/7	Daniel Dorling Geography Department University of Sheffield	Mapping the World - the Human Cartography of a Small Planet
Wednesday 26 April 2006	Adrian Bailey School of Geography Leeds University	Family, Belonging and the Transnational Lives of South American Immigrants in the UK
Wednesday 3 May 2006	Gavin Bridge Geography Discipline School of Environment and Development University of Manchester	Dirt and Dreams: International Mining and the Governance of Resource Access and Environmental Protection
Monday 8 May 2006	Harald Bathelt University of Marburg Germany	Relational Economic Geography, Globalization and the Role of Temporary Clusters
Wednesday 10 May 2006	Farhana Sultana Department of Geography University of Minnesota USA	Political Ecology of Water: Gender, Arsenic and Development in Bangladesh