

School of Environment and Development
Geography Seminar Series 2008-2009
Semester 1

Room 1.69/1.70, 1st Floor, Humanities Bridgeford Street Building

| Date | Time | Speaker | Title |
|---|--|---|---|
| Wednesday 15 th October 2008 | 4.00pm NB: Room G7 - HBS | Ed Rhodes Environmental and Geographical Sciences Manchester Metropolitan University | Recent developments in luminescence dating research |
| Wednesday 22 nd October 2008 | 4.00pm | Chris Perkins Geography, School of Environment and Development, University of Manchester | Angry maps! |
| Wednesday 29 th October 2008 | 4.00pm | Dave Wilkinson School of Natural Sciences Liverpool John Moores University | Fundamental processes in Ecology: an earth systems approach |
| Wednesday 19 th November 2008 | 4.00pm | Claire Smith Geography, School of Environment and Development, University of Manchester | Caves and climate: underground archives |
| Wednesday 26 th November 2008 | 4.00pm | Bethan Evans Environmental and Geographical Sciences Manchester Metropolitan University | Anticipating fatness: childhood, affect and the pre-emptive 'war on obesity' |
| Wednesday 3 rd December 2008 | 4.00pm | Mark Danson School of Environment and Life Sciences University of Salford | Monitoring UK vegetation phenology using airborne and terrestrial laser scanners |
| Wednesday 10 th December 2008 | 4.00pm | Peter Adey Department of Earth Sciences and Geography University of Keele | Facing 'airport security': affect, biopolitics and the securitization of the mobile body |