

School of Environment and Development
Geography Seminar Series 2009-2010

Semester 1

Room 1.69/1.70, 1st Floor, Humanities Bridgeford Street Building

Date	Time	Speaker	Title
Wednesday 7 th October 2009	4.00pm NB: Room G6 - HBS	Dr Martin Evans Geography, School of Environment and Development University of Manchester	Peatland geomorphology and carbon cycling
Wednesday 14 th October 2009	4.00pm NB: Room G6 - HBS	Professor Andy Pike Centre for Urban and Regional Development Studies Newcastle University	Placing the geographies of brands and branding
Wednesday 21 st October 2009	4.00pm NB: Hanson Room - HBS	Dr. Lucas Van Wunnik Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya	The multinational firm in the maquiladora industry: a catalyst of industrial development or an enclave?
Wednesday 28 th October 2009	4.00pm NB: Room G6 - HBS	Dr Will Gosling Department of Earth & Environmental Science The Open University	Quaternary environmental change in the Neotropics
SED – Research Seminar Wednesday 18 th November 2009	4.00pm	Prof. Nabeel Hamdi Housing and Urban Development, Oxford Brookes University	Small change and the architecture of opportunity
Wednesday 25 th November 2009	4.00pm	Professor Philip Gibbard Department of Geography University of Cambridge	How Britain became an island

Wednesday 2 nd December 2009	4.00pm	Dr Sarah L. Holloway and Dr Helena Pimlott-Wilson Department of Geography, Loughborough University	Dumped here or escaping there: class, childhood, parenting and the restructuring of social reproduction in the neo-liberal state
Wednesday 9th December 2009	4.00pm	Professor Nancy B. Dise Department of Environmental and Geographical Sciences Manchester Metropolitan University	Bye Bye Wildflowers? Nitrogen Deposition and Biodiversity of European Grasslands

Semester 2

Date	Time	Speaker	Title
Wednesday 17 th February 2010	4.00pm	Dr Ben Anderson Department of Geography Durham University	Atmospheres of Security: Governing the Future in UK Emergency Preparedness
Wednesday 24 th February 2010	4.00pm	Dr Julian Dawson School of Geoscience University of Aberdeen	The fate of terrestrial carbon in upland waters
Wednesday 3 rd March 2010	4.00pm	Dr Paul Chatterton School of Geography University of Leeds	Survival lessons for radical geographies
Wednesday 10 th March 2010	4.00pm	Dr Julian Holloway Department of Environmental and Geographical Sciences Manchester Metropolitan University	Enchantment in spaces of the ghostly and the monstrous
Wednesday 17th March 2010	4.00pm	Dr Andrew J. Dugmore Geography, School of GeoSciences, University of Edinburgh	Well-adapted, but still extinct: lessons from the Viking settlement of the North Atlantic