

Renmin–Manchester Workshop on Inequality and Poverty in China

Hosted by the School of Social Sciences and the Global Development Institute, University of Manchester
(Funded by the University of Manchester Research Institute)

Friday 17th June 2016

Venue: Arthur Lewis Building, 2nd Floor Boardroom (2.016/017)

- 09.00 Registration and Coffee
- 09.30 Opening Remarks, Prof. Yoram Gorlizki, Manchester
- 09.40 – Session 1: Inequality in China
11.20 (chair: Prof. Armando Barrientos, Manchester)
Prof. John Knight, University of Oxford, 'The rise in inequality of wealth in China'
Dr Xiaobing Wang, Economics, Manchester, 'China's Efficient Urban Bias'
- 11.20 Coffee break
- 11.40 – Session 2: Labour Markets
13.10 (chair: Dr Alessia Issopi, Manchester)
Dr Hao Qi, Renmin University of China, 'Power Relations and the Labour Share of Income in China'
Dr Wenya Cheng, Manchester, 'Local Labour Markets Effects of Trade Policy Uncertainty: Evidence from China's WTO Accession'
- 13.10 Lunch break
- 14.10 – Session 3: Spatial Analysis
15.40 (chair: Dr Indranil Dutta, Manchester)
Prof. Xinye Zheng, Renmin University of China, 'Will China's City Governments race to the bottom in the provision of Minimum Living Standard Assistance?'
Prof. Cecilia Wong and Dr Miao Qiao, Manchester, 'Urban-rural linkages: spatial planning and learning-based development'
- 15.40 Coffee break
- 16.00 – Session 4: Human Capital and Nutrition
17.30 (chair: Dr Jennifer Golan, Manchester)
Dr Jing You, Renmin University of China, 'To have or not to have another child? Multigenerational human capital formation under Chinese family planning'
Dr Katsushi Imai, Manchester, 'Declining nutrient intake in a growing China: Does household heterogeneity matter?'
- 17.30 Closing Remarks, Dr Xiaobing Wang, Manchester

Please register at: www.inequalityandpovertyinchina.eventbrite.co.uk

Workshop organisers: Dr Katsushi Imai (Katsushi.Imai@manchester.ac.uk)
Dr Xiaobing Wang (Xiaobing.Wang@manchester.ac.uk)

