

GTA Training

Session 3

While you are waiting, please take a handout and make sure you have booked in.
Thank you

Are you ready to teach?

Watch the video, count how many time the students in white pass the ball, do not count the bounces, only count the actual passes from one player to another.

If you have seen this video before, PLEASE, do not give the answer away.

Counting video

Introduction

Aims and Objectives

- Getting started
- Planning your session
- Presentation styles
- Collaborative learning and group work
- Media

Getting started

Things to remember:

- Do they know who you are?
- Have you planned?
- Are you ready?

Who are you?

Task 1 & 2 (page 3)

Introductions are the key to your first sessions. They set the scene for all other communication, activity and relationships with your students.

Traits of a good teacher

- Adaptable
- Organized
- Creative
- Humorous
- Empathetic

Getting started

Things to remember:

- Do they know who you are?
- Have you planned?
- Are you ready?

Planning

Task 3 (page 6)

Questions to ask while planning:

- Subject?
- Students?
- Prior experience?
- Resources?
- Technology?
- Classroom?

Getting started

Things to remember:

- Do they know who you are?
- Have you planned?
- Are you ready?

Teaching Styles

- Formal authority
- Demonstrator or personal model
- Facilitator
- Delegator

Media/Resources

- Task 4 (page 12)

Media in education