

Policy Week 2014

Thursday 6 November urban day

10.00 - 11.30, Room 1: The Greater Manchester Poverty Index and a critique of the indices of multiple deprivation
Dr Stephen Hincks (Planning), Prof Ruth Lupton (Education), Neil McInroy (CLES), Dr Brian Webb (University of Cardiff). Chaired by Prof Cecilia Wong (Co-director of cities@manchester and Director of CUPS).

11.45 - 12.00, Room 2: Picture a poverty free city #1
Prof Alan Dyson (Education)

12.00 - 12.15, Room 2: Picture a poverty free city #2
Elisabeth Garratt Glass & Dr Kingsley Purdam (CMIST)

12.15 - 13.00, Lunch break

13.00 - 14.30, Room 1: KEYNOTE EVENT - Inequality and housing: urban perspectives
Prof Danny Dorling (University of Oxford) with: Cllr Sue Derbyshire (Chair of AGMA Planning & Housing Commission and Leader of Stockport Council), Len Gibbs (Chief executive, EPIC Housing), Deborah McLaughlin (Executive Director, HCA North West). Chaired by Professor Brian Robson OBE.

14.45 - 15.00, Room 2: Picture a poverty free city #3
Dr Nicola Banks (IDPM)

15.00 - 15.15, Break

15.15 - 15.30, Room 2: Picture a poverty free city #4
Prof Diana Mitlin (GURC)

16.00 - 17.00, Room 1: Let's live in an economy for all
Mark Burton (Visiting Professor, MMU), Prof Danny Dorling (University of Oxford), Sandy Lindsay (MD of Tangerine PR and Board member of Forever Manchester), Angela Rayner, (Labour PPC for Ashton-under-Lyne and UNISON North West Regional Convenor). Chaired by Neil McInroy (Chief Executive, CLES).

18.30 - 20.00, Room 2: London vs the rest: can our northern cities compete?
Robin Boyle (Chair of Urban Studies and Planning, Wayne State University in Detroit), Ed Cox (IPPR North), Dick Sorabji (Corporate Director Policy & Public Affairs, London Councils). Chaired by Prof Cecilia Wong (Co-director of cities@manchester and Director of CUPS, University of Manchester).

BWPI and cities@manchester will bring together academics from a range of disciplines to explore what a city free from poverty looks like through the lens of their individual research areas. In these multimedia events the series of short talks will be illustrated live and filmed.

In conjunction with:

Centre for Local Economic Strategies

Centre for Urban Policy Studies

Institute for Public Policy Research