

HEALTHCARE LAW AND ETHICS IN THE NEWS

Annual Conference
Centre for Social Ethics and Policy

Monday 23 February 2015
Samuel Alexander Building A101
4.30pm - 9pm

Join us to discuss some of the most controversial questions that arise in health care and that may affect the lives of us all.

Programme

- 4.30pm Tea and registration
- 5.30pm Welcome and introduction by Kirsty Keywood and our students
- 5.45pm Margot Brazier: Suing doctors and the blaming culture
Response: Iain Brassington
- 6.15pm Simona Giordano: Issues in mental health - Anorexia Nervosa and mental capacity
Response: Kirsty Keywood
- 6.45 - 7pm Break*
- 7pm Becki Bennett: Routine testing in pregnancy
Response: Catherine Stanton
- 7.30pm Alex Mullock: Assisted dying - The fate of the Falconer Bill
Response: Søren Holm
- 8pm Open forum, drinks and debate

There is no fee but we do ask you to register to secure a place by emailing carol.barker@manchester.ac.uk

To find out more about the event contact
Simona Giordano: 0161 275 6834 / simona.giordano@manchester.ac.uk

There will be plenty of opportunity for you to have your say and meet us over drinks at the end of the day.