

School of Law PGR Welcome

1pm – 4pm

Tuesday 17 January 2017

(To be held in the School of Arts, Languages and Cultures GRAD School)

Starting a doctoral degree can be a daunting experience. At The University of Manchester we understand just how different the doctorate is from your previous study. Consequently, we have put in place a structured induction programme to help smooth the transition into doctoral level research and prepare you well for the journey ahead.

Time	Description	Speaker
1pm	Welcome to The University of Manchester	Professor Maja Zehfuss (Professor of Politics and Assistant Associate Dean of PGR)
1:10pm	Researcher Development	Dr Ian Fairweather (Researcher Development Manager)
1:30pm	Introduction to eProg	Claire Smith (Postgraduate Research Officer – eProg)
1.40pm	Careers Services	Dr Darcey Gillie (Careers Consultant – Postgraduate and Technology)
2pm	PGR Placements	Dr Louise Davies (PGR Placements and Partnerships Officer)
2.15pm	Research IT	Dr Gillian Sinclair (Research IT Services)
2.30pm	Get Started	Lucinda May (The University of Manchester Library)
2.40pm	Students' Union	Lisa Tighe (PGR Student Representative)
2.50pm	Q and A from the new starters Closing	Dr Eljee Javier (Researcher Development Officer)
3 - 4pm	Tea Time Social (tea, coffee and cakes)	Meet and greet

This is a Faculty wide welcome event during which you will be given an overview of the wealth of services available to you and includes presentations from key people who will provide support throughout your doctoral journey.