

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1787, before it became Manchester Cathedral, the Collegiate Church of St Mary, St Denys and St George was the venue for the first public meeting for the abolition of slavery.

Study Religions and Theology at Manchester and learn more

telephone: 0161 306 1240

www.manchester.ac.uk/alc