

Are you a current student or recent graduate of The University of Manchester, and considering studying a master's degree with us?

You could be eligible for the Faculty of Humanities Alumni Scholarship, giving you a £3,000 discount on your tuition fees.

Faculty of Humanities Alumni Scholarships

If you:

- are a current student at The University of Manchester, or are applying within three years of graduating from your undergraduate degree;
- achieve a first-class degree in any discipline (not just within the Faculty of Humanities);
- receive an offer to study on any master's course within the Faculty of Humanities;

... you will automatically be awarded the Faculty of Humanities Alumni Scholarship, offering you a discount on your tuition fees of £3,000.

- It is available to all nationalities (UK, EU, and international).
- It is available for all modes of study (full-time, part-time, and distance learning).

How do I apply for it?

You don't need to apply. If you meet the above criteria, the £3,000 discount on the total cost of your tuition fees will be applied automatically. Please note the Alumni Scholarship is not normally available in conjunction with other University bursaries.

For further information, please contact the Admissions Team on the course you're applying for. Explore all master's courses in the Faculty of Humanities at www.manchester.ac.uk/humanities/study

Why study a master's degree at The University of Manchester?

- Our courses draw upon our world-leading research with strong links to global industry
- We teach you highly relevant skills, enabling you to think critically and analytically, and setting you apart in the competitive jobs market
- Our research and teaching make a contribution to addressing some of the major social, economic and political challenges facing the world
- With over £1 billion of investment planned over the next ten years, our wealth of facilities and resources will give you the tools to make the most of your studies

UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER