

Social Statistics at Manchester

Manchester offers you:

- multidisciplinary, research-driven teaching;
- opportunities for fully funded studentships;
- a thriving learning environment in a high-profile discipline area.

Social Statistics is the newest discipline area within the School of Social Sciences, and one of very few such groupings in the UK. We focus on high-quality research and effective collaboration with other disciplines within the University, to bring a range of quantitative studies in social sciences.

The Cathie Marsh Institute for Social Research (CMIST), is a multidisciplinary research centre in The University of Manchester's School of Social Sciences, to which you will have full access.
